

A Pakistani Physician Awarded the Highest Medical Award of Canada

Dr. Muhammad Masud-ul-Hasan Nuri Awarded Honorary Fellowship by the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada

Dr. Muhammad Masud-ul-Hasan Nuri, MBBS (Pb), FCPS (Pak), MRCP (UK), has been named a 2024 Honorary Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada. Dr. Nuri, CEO and Chief Cardiologist at Tahir Heart Institute in Rabwah, Pakistan, was honored during a prestigious award ceremony held in Ottawa on September 26, 2024.

Prominent members of the Ahmadiyya Medical Association of Canada (AMMAC), including President Dr. Kokab Awan and Vice President Dr. Saira Zafar, were also in attendance.

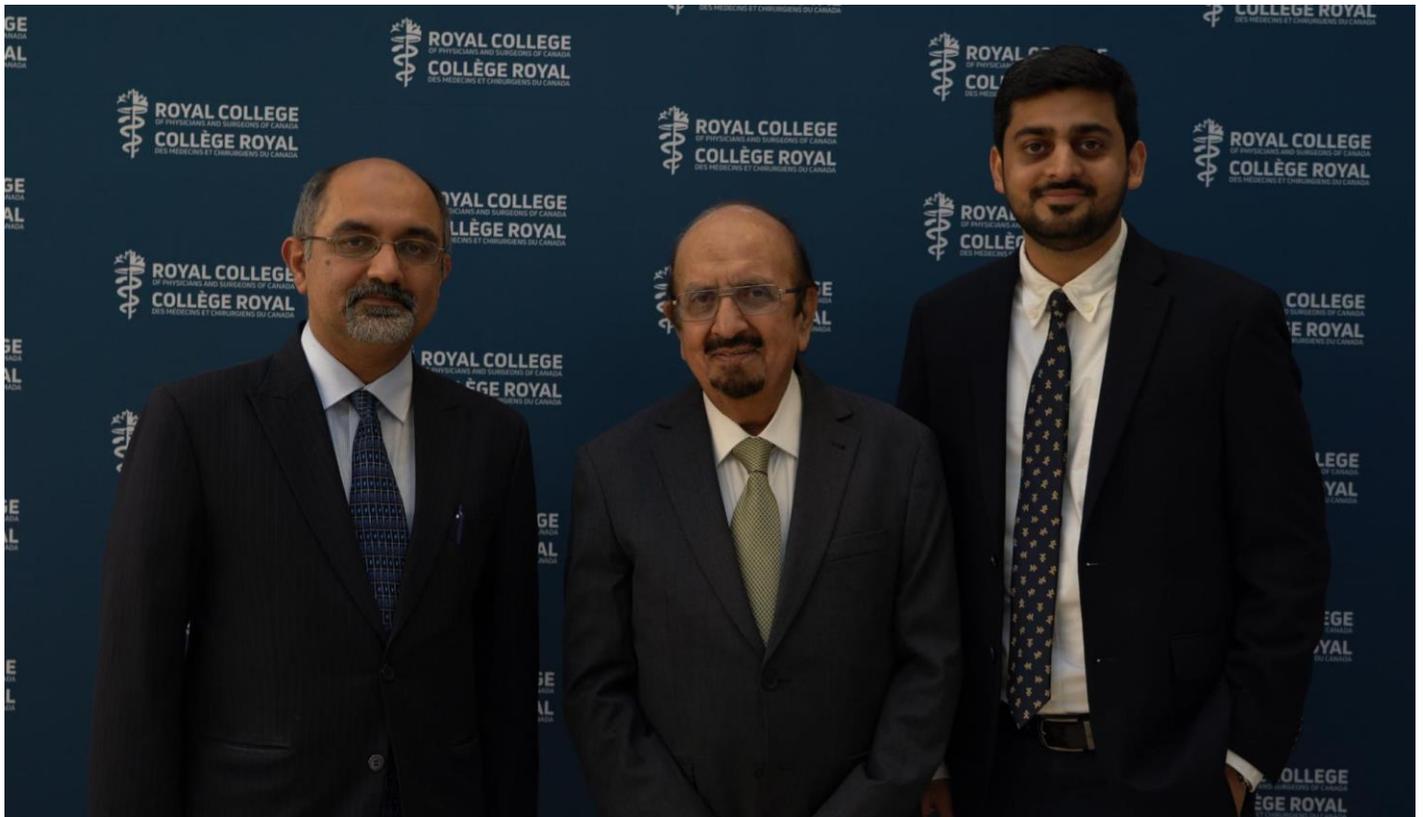

The Honorary Fellowship is one of the most esteemed recognitions in the medical field, awarded through a meticulous review process by the Awards Committee. This committee evaluates a diverse range of nominations using a rigorous scoring system to select individuals who have demonstrated exceptional contributions to healthcare.

College extended heartfelt congratulations to Dr. Nuri and the other distinguished award recipients. The college will publish the inspiring stories behind their accomplishments and the exceptional work that earned them this well-deserved recognition.

MORE

<https://news.royalcollege.ca/en/newsroom/posts/announcing-the-royal-college-s-2024-award-recipients-and-honorar.html>